Russin has long been possessed of the Northern for years past to obtain the cession of the Waltz "Mandolinata" Metre. remaining portion. The proximity of Russia has proved a source of uneasiness to the Japanese, who rightly, we think regard the designs of their big reighbour with suspicion. The Japanese native Press has on several occasions complained of the aggressive and dictatorial policy of the CZAR's Government; and expressed the opinion that Russia had no right to interfere with them in Saghalien, and certainly the territory just ceded belongs geographically to Japan. Russia will now be almost within gunshot of the coast of Yesso, and will be able at any time to overawe Japan by a display of force there. The territorial loss sustained by Japan is also by no means inconsiderable, as it exceeds in area the whole of Formosa, and in future maps Japan will appear a good deal shorn in dimensions, restrain defendant from continuing the unlaw- ing molested, and it appeared that he had It is true Saghalien was the least productive portion of the MIKADO's dominions, but it is always humiliating to a power to give up possession of any part of its territory. It is a parallel case to the plunder of Schleswig-Holstein from Denmark by the two great German powers, with this difference—that Japan saw the folly of resistance, while the brave Danes shed their blood freely on the Dannewerke in a vain attempt to preserve the integrity of their fatherland.
